A partir del 1 de julio de 2028, será obligatorio mantener las luces delanteras encendidas en todo momento al conducir por carreteras rurales de dos carriles dentro del estado (NRS 484D.100). Esta ley no se aplica a las calles urbanas de dos carriles ni a las carreteras que cuenten con más de un carril en cada dirección.

Como medida preparatoria, el NDOT está implementando de manera gradual la señalización que exige el uso de las luces delanteras durante el día, con el fin de concienciar a los conductores y mejorar la visibilidad en las vías.....

Mae Vassar

February 24, 1931 - February 24, 2026

Mae was born in Rugby, North Dakota to Joe and Ida Private. Joe and Ida were immigrants from Poland and Sweden respectively. She was raised on a farm with her older sisters Gladys and Ella. She attended the Bloomfield Lutheran Church where she was baptized and confirmed and where her strong Christian faith was planted. She worked in a bowling alley setting bowling pins. After high school she attended Minot State College earning her bachelor's degree in teaching and speech therapy. She earned her Master's Degree in education from The University of Arizona. She taught first at the local country school, teaching combined grades; 1st through 12th then moved to Glendive, MT to teach. While there she heard of openings in Las Vegas, NV. and was hired to teach 4th grade. She loved teaching and helping the little kids. She later became the school speech therapist too. She married Glynn W. Vassar on April 7, 1966. They loved and cared for each other and many cats and dogs. They both taught at Mt. Charleston school for 17 years. They retired to Amargosa Valley, NV in 1981, where they enjoyed the peace and quiet. Glynn passed away on April 29, 1996. Mae passed away on her 95th birthday surrounded by loved ones. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, son Gary Vassar, and sisters and brother in Laws; Gladys (Phil) Johannes and Ella (Warren) Cady.

She is survived by grandchildren; Gary (Sarah) Vassar, Wes (Grace) Vassar and Angi Vassar and great grandchildren; Breana Craig and Charlie Vassar, and nieces and nephews; Phyllis Porter, Charlotte Jones, Dan (Susan) Cady, Maureen (Dennis) Ames, Aileen Schettino and Alison Cady (Tony Canfield), and her longtime friend Linda Brommel.

Mae was a wonderful woman; fun loving; full of laughs and loved by all. She will be greatly missed.

We wish to thank

Comfort Home, Health and Hospice employees and staff at Inspirations Assisted Living for their loving care of Mae,
